About Me

Singer-songwriter who transitioned into acting. Singing helped me define the characteristics and timbre of the voice, which naturally led me to work as a voiceover artist. I describe myself as whisky born with a lick of champagne.

Born in the steel city of Sheffield with Italian roots. I'm a rebel who relishes throwing away the 'security blanket' and immersing myself in the unknown. Studying screen acting and theatre has paved the way for a continual work-in-progress attitude, both spiritually and mentally, in the wonderful world of acting and scriptwriting. I Love animals, especially pigeons.

I have been awarded scene of the month in Matt Zina's Acting academy and have won numerous awards for scene of the week.
